Being aware of this peculiarity, some of the male bearders, who were "whooping" up one night, concocted a dreadful practical loke. They stole a life-sized wooden Dutchman from the front of a cigar-stand, smuggled it into the house, and secreted it under the chaste couch of the mature Diana referred to. When the latter retired, the conspirators waited on the staircase expecting an earthquake as soon as the bogus burglar was sighted. They waited until the gas went out without developments. Was it possib their victim had neglected her time-honoure custom? The idea was proposterous. They sti waited for the volcano to begin throwing up screams, convulsions, melted lava and hair-pins. MEETING OF THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

A meeting of the Legislative Council was heldyesterday afternoon. There were present :-His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government (Mr. F. Fleming); Mr. W. M. Deane (Acting Colonial Secretary); Mr. S. Brown, (Surveyor-General); Mr. E. J. Ackroyd (Acting Attorney-General); Mr. H. E. Wodehouse (Acting Colonial Treasurer); Mr. N. G. The minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed.

The Acting Colonial Secretary laid on the table certain despatches relative to the increased military contribution, which will be found in another column. A COMPASSIONATE ALLOWANCE.

A HYTHICAL FUND, Mr. T. H. Whitehead asked the followlng questions :- z. Why and by whose order was it put an end to, and how much of the fund was repaid to the subscribers

The Acting Colonial Secretary replied to the effect that the superannuation fund which ex ted charge of the China and Japan Telephone in this colony previous and up to 1857 had its rise in an Imperial Act of Parliament, which was repealed by 20 and 21 Vic., from the 30th June, 1857. In consequence of that repeal a refund was made to subscribers from the 30th of June up to the time, when the knowledge of that repeal arrived in the Colony. The Acting Colonial Secretary, in reply, regretted that the Government was at the present time unable to accede to the hom. member's request which dealt with matters of current account in England, the adjustment of which could not reach: this colony until the end of February. His Excellency had, however, no objection to place at the hon, member's disposal the accounts received for the first and second quarters of this year.

The present scheme for un increase new features in our freight market, rates both in the salaries of the members of the Civil Service would render the Ordinance still more obsolete, and there was no reason why it should remain on the Statue Book any longer. In a Crown Colony the rights of the civil servants would be adequately secured by an annual vote.

The Acting Colonial Secretary acconded. Bill read a second time. The Council then went into committee on the

His Excellency-Before adjourning the Council would wish, if possible, to ascertain, from the unofficial members particularly, what other day during the present week would be a convenient day to them to have another sitting. am afraid it would be dangerous to fix a sitting for next Monday inasmuch as it is possible the mail by which we know the Governor is expected may arrive that day, and therefore it seems to me almost necessary we should have another meeting during the course of this week in order to finish up one or two important reports still pending before the Finance Committee. In so iar as am concerned I should be quite prepared to meet either on Thursday or Friday, whichever day might be most convenient to the unefficial members, or, if both those days are seriously inconvenient, it might be possible to have a sitting on Saturday morning. I merely throw out this suggestion in order to let the Council know I think it absolutely necessary to have another sitting this week, and further than that I should be glad to hear any suggestions the unofficial members of Council may have to make, Mr. P. Ryrie-I would suggest Saturday, because Thursday and Friday are both regatta

His Excellency-But which is the more important, the Council or the regatta ? Mr. P. Ryrie-Well, we can have a Council any day; we cannot have a Regits any day, After some discussion it was decided to meet again on Saturday at eleven o'clock,

THE FINANCE COMMITTEE,

After the meeting of Council the Finance Committee was held under the presidency of Mr. W. M. Deane, Acting Colonial Secretary. HOW VICTORIA COLLEGE DOUBLED ITS ORIGINAL

VALUE: • The dissussion of Extraordinary Public Works was continued, the Chirman introducing the subject of new water main as follows:---

Gentlemen, we will resume consideration of Public Works Extraordinary, sub-item 32, new water mains and distributory system of Victoria waterworks, estimated total cost, $200,000 | estimated expenditure to 31st December, 1890, $87,000; estimated expenditure, 1891, $70,000. The papers on this subject were laid on the table on the 30th May, 1890, and the Government, in prosecution of the report of Mr. Chadwick, are now carrying out his recommendations. The question you have to decide therefore is whether the sum of $70,000 shall be yoted for these works next year.

Mr.T. H. Whitehead-Is this sum the ostle mate made and arrived at by Mr. Chadwick i The Chairman-Yes, you will see it is in his report. It is entirely Mr. Chadwick's doing. Mr. T. H. Whitehead-As Government has decided to carry out Mr. Chadwick's proposals and plans, would it not have been desirable if there had been a formal resolution of Council agreeing to do so? The Chairman-I do not think so, because Shipping Consolidation Ordinance of 1870 which | the Council has already voted a sum for the ex-

ask you to vote the sum calculated for the expenditure next year, and as this ir port was placed before the Council on the 30th May think if there had been any objection to it the Government would most likely have heard of it in the interval.

The Surveyor-General-The amount expended this year and that asked for for next year together form about four-fifths of the amount of the total estimate.

Mr. T. H. Whitehead-Is there any risk of Mr. Chadwick plans being departed from with a change of officers. The Chairman-No, I should say mone, because Mr. Chadwick is consulting engineer at home. He is paid £300 a year for his duties in connection with this work and he is in constant communication with the Resident Engineer. do not think the Resident Engineer would be justified in departing from his plans.

Mr. T. H. Whitehead-In connection with former works plans have been departed from, which has uncloubtedly led the Government into larger expenditure than was contemplated.

The Surveyor-General-Would the hen. member mention, what public works he refers to? Mr. T. H. Whitehead-Well, the Victoria · College and the Hospital quarters, for instance. The Surveyor-General-The increased expenhaving turned out a great deal worse than was Mr. Ho Kai-How did the foundations turn out worse than expected The Surveyor-General-I don't know that can make my words any clearer. Provision was not made in the estimates for such a bad foundation as was found when the ground was opened

Mr. C. P. Chaler-That surely would not make the difference between what it was estimated to cost and what if did cost.

The Surveyor-General-Yes, the papers show It accounts for the greater part of the difference. Mr. C. P. Chater But not the whole. The actual cost was nearly double the estimate. The Surveyor-General-It was not from any alteration in the plans. Perhaps the cost of work went up. C. P. Chater-That is very likely, but surely that could not make the whole difference, because it was nearly doubled. The Chairman-I do not think we ought to discuss the Victoria College on a vote for new water mains. The motter has' been alluded to. which is quitejustificble, as showing that care must be taken but I think Mr. Chadwick in England will exercise every care, and I do not think the Resident Engineer will depart from the instructions laid down for him.

Upon the subject of the proposed reduc tion of rates of postage to and from Europe. the Acting Colonial Secretary asked the Council to arrive at a d cision in order that the Government could telegraph a reply to the Secretary of State's cablegram of the 11th instant. Carried unanimously. A full report of the discussion which took place on this subject will appear in our issue

THE INCREASED MILITARY CONTRIBUTION.

The following despatches respecting the increased military contribution in Hongkong were laid on the table at the Council meeting yesterday afternoon :-

Government House, Hongkong, 10th September, 1890. My Lord,-I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your lordship's despatch, No. 148, of the 25th of July, transmitting to me correspondence which has passed between the Colonial Office and the War Department on the subject of theircreased military contribution by this colony.

z.- I notice with pleasure the concluding am, &c., paragraph of Mr. Winefield's letter to the War Office of the 21rd of May, in which he states that your Lordship desired him to add that the liberal manner in which the unofficial members of the legislature met the demands of the Imperial Government enabled a constitutional crisis to be avoided, and that it would be politic, in your Lordship's opinion, to make any conces sion which it might be possible to meet their

I entirely agree with your Lordship that would have been politic in the circumstances had the War Office given some consideration to your Lordship's very reasonable suggestion. But far from doing this they seem to take advantage o the Council's liberality by having recourse to different line of argument to that conveyed at their dictation in your lordship's despatch. No. 8 of the 20th of January last.

That despatch, as does the letter from the War Office of the 24th of July, unquestionably refers to what the garrison is Hongkong was it 1863: to the amount of contribution then paid and to the revenue of the colony in that year, and it then goes on to compare the state of things at that period with what exists at present.

But the real purport of that depatch was to make a demand for a further contribution on the ground that circumstances rendered it necessary to increase the garrison here.

This is felfarly shown in the first paragraph where your Lordship addresses me on the subject of the additional garrison required "by the fortifications recently erected at Hongkong and this morning. their-armament"

Again in paragraph 7 your Lording says -"The cost of this garrison (i.e. the future garrison) will be about £280,000 a year and will consequently be mearly, three times as great as was the expense of the garrison in 1863 when the colonial contribution was fixed.

"In paragraph 19. your Lordship temaiks "that the £40,000 which the colony will pay in each of the next three years is only one-seventh of the cost of the garrison, while the remaining six sevenths, £240,000, will still be borne by the mother country."

from this list mentioned paragraph, than that | no European, only Chinese, passengers, Now, the Imperial Government intimated that they I had arranged that my foreman should meet intended during these three years to expend me at a certain house on the Peak, and after £280,000 per annum on an increased garrison waiting three-quarters of an hour he arrived and out of which they requested the colony to con- explained that he could not get a tram owing to

The letter of the 14th of July instauates and advertised for the information of the public that the increased contribution is not asked they should surely be adhered to-even if those for so much because we are to have an who lay themselves under an obligation to the increased surison, but beenthe the colony's Company by paying for a passage are China-

year 1863, and because an intention, then announced, to increase the military contribution | lost. at the end of five years was never carried out,

These might have been very good reasons for requesting the colony to increase its contribution, and had they been straightforwardly and undisquisedly submitted to the Legislature, I doubt not that the unofficial members would have given them that importial consideration which they are at all times prepared to give to proposals emanating from Her Majuly's Government.

But these were not the grounds upon which the Council were saked to vote the additional money. The real reason was, and there can be no altempt to disguise it, that the garrison would be increased during the three years particularly referred to, whereas there seems to be little chance of any substantial increase this year or Indeed within ary limited period.

4.- I will not further allude to the unfortunate error which was centained in the appendix to your Lordship's despatch, unintentional as it was on your Lordship's part, more thu to remark that it was one which not unnaturally tended to mislead the colony in an important matter of this description. Whatever may have been decided by the War Office previous to the despatch being written should have been represented to your Loidship in such unmistakahle terms as would have enabled, your Lordship to unequivocally state the grounds upon which a considerable, demand was to be made upon the taxpayers of this

5.-I venture to say that by far the best way to avoid a constitutional crisis or indeed any other Government difficulty in this colony, where I have found the unefficial members of Council to be gentlemen of shrewd intellect, and possessing ne political or partisan desire to oppose a Government measure except on its murits, is for the Imperial Government to submit such measures as may be deemed necessary in a frank and open manner. Opinions may of course differ and occasions will no doubt sise when officials in a Crown colony may, through the necessity of their position, be arrayed on one side while the non-offici .ls will be found on the other. But in Hongkong this contingency rarely happens, and is still less likely to do so if the full and clear intention of Government is submitted to the unofficial members, instead of an aspect of the case, which, however unintentionally, may distort the true object of the measure.- I have the honour to be, my Lord your Lordship's most obedient, humble servant F. FLEMING

LAST NIGHT'S FIRE.

About s'x o'clock last uight, when the fire alarm was sounded it was found that a fir: was raging in the back part of the Sei Tal shop. No. 112 Queen's Road Central. In addition to burning down part of the Sci Tai store theflames consumed No. 39 Stanley Street. The Fire Brigade under the command of Superintendent Wodehouse and Assistant Supt. Horspool, was soon on the spot and after baffling hard with the flames for fully two hours succeeded in getting the fire well under control by 9 o'clock.

The See Tai shop was insured on two policies of $10,000 and $5,000 in the Northern Insurance Co., for which Messis, Hewett Co. are the agents, the latter policy having been renewed only a few days ago, while the former policy. will expire to-morrow. The house No. '39, Stanley Street was not insured and had only been occupied by its present tenant'a few days. The amount of damage done to the See Tai shop is estimated at upwards of $7,000. During the operations carried on by the brigade Mr. W. S. Hongkong, December 16th, 1890. THE ELECTRIC LIGHT.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "HONGKONG TELEGRAPH." SIR,-Seeing a paragraph in the Shanghai Merury (taken from your paper) about the breakdown of the Flectric light, I should like to ask the energetic Manager of your Electric Light Company how it was that, the external circuit was not tested for insulation, and why is the Dynamo placed on "earth," instead of on some kind of insulation? It is plain to me that the fault occurred in the field magnets of the Dynamo, due to the external circuit coming in contact with the lamp post. If the two external wires had made "earth" the current would have passed through the automatic regulator and consequently dropping the E.M.F. to suit the lamps incircuit. I have seen the engineer in the Shanghai Electric Station working five lamps on a 2,600 volt machine. But, of course, practice makes pefect, and I have no doubt if the Company in Hongkong continues for a time the management will gain experience.

Yours truly, FRED. BENWELL. Astor House,

Shanghai, 12th December, 1890. STRANDING OF THE " TOKIO

The following telegraphic advices respecting the stranding of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha well-known Shanghai liner Tokio Maru, Capt Drummond, were received by the N.-C. Daily News in the 9th Instant.

YOKOITAMA, 9th Dec., 6.20 p.m. The Nippon Yusen Kaisha's steamer Toklo Maru, Captain Drummond, ran on shore in a fog on Saturday morning, the 6th instant, to the westward of Mela Ledge. There was a terrific gale last night, and she must become a total

The Tokio Maru, a steamer well known here, ind sister ship to the Yokohama Maru, must have been returning from , Hakodate to Yokohama. Mela Ledge, on which she had the misfortune to strike, is a reel of rocks off Mela Head, at the southern extremity of the province of Awa, at the south-castern corner of the island of Nippon. It is about 35 miles from Yok hama. There is a light-house close by on No Shima Saki.-ED.] In a subsequent issue, our contemporary says :- We learn from Mr. Graham, the local agent of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, that he is informed by wire from Tokio that the Tokio Maru is badly stranded, position very serious.' She has not broken up yet apparently, and as she has survived at least one gale, there are hopes that she will eventually be got off, as she is a very strongly built ship. It is difficult to believe that she can be on Mela Ledge, or she would have broken up long ago. It is reasonable to suppose that there has been no loss of life.

The Mercury commenting on the above, in its issue of the 11th instant, says :-Beyond the telegram to our morning contemporary respecting the unfortunate disaster to the-Tokio Maru, no further information on the subject is at hand. The presumption of Mr. Graham, the Company's Agent here, is that the s'e mer was on her way from Hakodate to Yekohama. The rock upon which she struck is situated at the south-eastern extremity of Awa province, in the island of Nippon, and about 38 miles from Yokohama. There is a lighthouse quite close to those point, on No Shima Saki which fact will make it awkward for poor Capt. Drummond, who is one of the oldest captains in the company's service, having a record of 25 years as captain without an accident of any kind. No mention being made of passengers, it is to be inferred that they are safe. The Tokio is a sister ship of the Yokohama Maru, and very popular here.
